Local Author Publishes Fourth in Series

Choices Made: Always
by Christine McMahon

Hilbert, WI (August, 2012) In her fourth novel, Choices Made: Always, Christine McMahon takes Jamy back to Missouri at JamyNick's insistence to meet his mother Linde, an abusive woman long absent from their lives.

As her readers have been waiting for this new installation, Christine says, "This is the last of the series. Doing a series as a first book project has been both difficult and exciting as I watched Jamy's character evolve. His conflicts and successes have changed him, not always for the better, but his striving to be a 'good man' keeps his character fresh and very human."

Midwest Book Review said of Book 1: Choices Made: The Street Years, is the debut novel of Christine McMahon, and clearly establishes her as a gifted storyteller, able to take her reader into a gritty world of drug addiction, poverty, and life on the street."

Printed by Publishers Express Press, Choices Made: Always, and the earlier books in the series are available on the book's website, www.ChoicesMade.com, and Amazon.com.
